How is this year coming to an end? It is hard for me to believe we have almost completed another year at Harding Academy. It's been such a busy year I guess the time just flew by. I'm telling you, the older I get, the quicker the time moves. It has been a good year with some wonderful memories made. Our Beginner Band has gotten off to a wonderful start to their band years and I am looking ahead to the future when they can really stretch their wings. The Junior Concert Band is coming off a successful trip to Arlington, TX to participate in the Music In The Parks concert festival, where they earned an EXCELLENT rating! The Senior Wind Ensemble traveled to Orlando and performed in the STARS Performance Series at Universal Studios. We had several students participate in All West and Luke Davis traveled to Nashville to represent the Harding Academy Band at All State. Tonight is a celebration of the year and I am looking forward to some wonderful music and making memories with these amazing musicians!

Tonight marks the end of a journey with our Senior Class of 2024. They have been through so much with the band program and I am so proud of the men and women they have all become. We will enjoy this concert with them, and we will be looking forward to performing with them one more time in their caps and gowns. Thank you, Seniors, for adding your sound and your hearts to our band program.

I hope you enjoy the concert this evening!

See you on the downbeat,
Colby Canterbury
